

Hundreds of visitors to the New York Design Center discovered its latest and greatest hospitality offerings during Check-In to 200 Lex. During the building-wide event cosponsored by Interior Design, 60 showrooms opened their doors for the evening, and some hosted presentations by leading hospitality designers and manufacturers. They ranged from Steven Charlton, previewing a hotel renovation in Los Angeles, to Jiun Ho, discussing global inspirations for his furnishings. the vitality of hospitality

a family picnic

Outdoor-furniture specialist Richard Schultz Design heralded the arrival of the alfresco season with the christening of a flagship showroom by Audrey Matlock Architect. Cohosted by Peter Schultz and Interior Design editor in chief Cindy Allen, the event at New York's D&D Building welcomed a special guest: The manufacturer's 82-year-old founder, Richard Schultz himself, joined the festivities along with his wife, Trudy.
